

Study Purpose

Develop a shared vision for regional transit.

Building a regional transit vision will require several levels of interaction and analysis. We will ENGAGE the stakeholders and civic leaders in the region in order to gain important perspectives on the choices we have. We will EXAMINE land use plans and regional demographics to further enhance our approach and plan. We will also EVALUATE regional alternatives for future transit services to inform any recommendations.

Schedule

